"Learning as if we were to live forever"

Presentation Night at Beckom Hall tomorrow

Our major event for the year is on tomorrow night!! How exciting!!

The Grinch performance will start at 6:00pm sharp. All students need to be at the Beckom Hall by 5:30pm, dressed in their costumes and ready to step on stage. Students will need to bring their formal uniform for the presentation part of the evening. Could parents please make sure these uniforms are on coat hangers so that we can hang them backstage during the performance so they do not get crushed.

My thanks to the P & C members who have provided so much help and support in the lead up to tomorrow night.

This is our last newsletter for 2019. The last day of school for students will be Wednesday 18th December. The first day of school for students next year will be Wednesday 29th January 2020.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our readers a safe and happy Christmas and New Year.

2019 Yearbooks for sale

The Beckom Public School 2019 Yearbook is now printed. Yearbooks will be available for purchase at Presentation Night for $5.00 a copy. Alternatively a copy of the yearbook can be purchased at the school next week.

Returning Books

It is the time of year when we ask parents to take a look around the house for any home readers or library books that children have brought home throughout the year. Please return books as soon as possible so that we can do a stocktake of resources.

JOKE of the WEEK

TRIVIA CORNER

A big thank you to all our readers who supported the trivia competition in 2019.

Josh Hawkins was the winner of the final trivia for 2019 and the runner-up was Matilda Osborne. In the song the Twelve Days of Christmas, on the eleventh day my true love gave me 11 pipers piping.

There were no correct answers in the adult trivia. The first movie the song White Christmas appeared in was the 1942 film Holiday Inn.
